RESPONDING STATE AGENCIES/ORGANIZATIONS REPORTS

STATE RESOURCES COMMITTED

Texas Division of Emergency Management, Texas A&M University System (TDEM): Mass Care has begun collaborating with our Voluntary Organizations Active in Disaster (VOAD) partners and locally impacted counties.

Communications Coordination Group (CCG):

TDEM Communications Coordination Group (CCG) is monitoring the situation with public, private, and volunteer sectors, and is assessing and adjusting resources for severe weather. Cellular providers are assessing the current situation. AT&T is reporting customers experiencing degraded service in the greater Houston area, and AT&T is working to assess the damage and restore services. The AT&T FirstNet Response Operations Group (ROG) has two on air solutions in Waller County. Carriers are deploying generators and back-up power as needed. The networks have redundancies and overlaps which are mitigating the loss of power in some areas.

The Commission on State Emergency Communications (CSEC) is contacting 911 Public Safety Access Point (PSAP) centers to confirm operational status. Public Safety networks in Harris County have experienced some degradation but are operational. The city of Houston has some issues with the backhaul network but is working on alternative solutions. Most of the issues are related to the loss of primary power and are being mitigated by back-up power sources.

Amateur operator networks providing regional emergency communications support reported no outages or requests for assistance. Coordination is being established between Emergency Support Function (ESF) 2 Communications and ESF 12 Energy, for power restoration to communication locations. Coordination between the Texas Department of Public Safety (DPS), Office of Statewide Interoperable Communications (TXSWIC), FEMA Region 6 Communications, and private and public partners is ongoing.

Incident Support Task Force (ISTF): There are two ISTF members assigned to the SOC.

TDEM Private Sector Coordination: TDEM continues to communicate with private sector partners in the affected areas. Quotes have been obtained for leasing 2,300 generators for the city of Houston to power traffic signals.
