STATEWIDE CURRENT SITUATION: On September 4, Governor Abbott announced that the federal government has amended the Hurricane Beryl Major Disaster Declaration to include 17 additional Texas counties that are now eligible for reimbursement for permanent work through the Federal Emergency Management Agency's (FEMA) Public Assistance program.

On August 22, Governor Abbott announced that the federal government has updated the Major Disaster Declaration for Hurricane Beryl to include 10 additional Texas counties that are now eligible for reimbursement for permanent work through FEMA's Public Assistance program.

On August 15, Governor Abbott announced that the Texas Health and Human Services Commission (HHSC) received federal approval extending the time that Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) recipients impacted by Hurricane Beryl can purchase hot foods and ready-to-eat meals with their benefits until September 15. Bowie, Cass, Fayette, Morris, Panola, Red River, and Washington counties were also added to the list of counties approved in July for hot foods.

On August 3, Governor Abbott announced that the federal government had updated the Major Disaster Declaration to include five additional Texas counties now eligible for FEMA's Individual Assistance program. After the completion and verification of damage assessments, the following counties have been deemed eligible for FEMA's Individual Assistance program: Austin, Bowie, Shelby, Trinity, and Waller.

On July 25, Governor Abbott announced that HHSC has received federal approval to automatically provide replacement benefits for SNAP recipients in Fort Bend and Washington counties. With this federal approval, SNAP recipients in 20 counties are now eligible for automatic SNAP replacement benefits.

On July 24, Governor Abbott announced the FEMA approved the state's request for Transitional Sheltering Assistance for 17 Texas counties impacted by Hurricane Beryl. Additionally, FEMA has waived an assistance requirement for Texans who purchased or rented generators between July 5-20 due to power outages caused by the hurricane.

The counties approved for FEMA's Transitional Sheltering Assistance program include Brazoria, Chambers, Fort Bend, Galveston, Harris, Jackson, Jasper, Jefferson Liberty, Matagorda, Montgomery, Nacogdoches, Orange, Polk, San Jacinto, Walker, and Wharton. Additional counties may become eligible as damage assessments are completed.

On July 17, Governor Abbott announced that HHSC has received federal approval to allow SNAP recipients in 36 counties impacted by Hurricane Beryl to purchase hot foods and ready-to-eat meals with their benefits.

Federal approval allows SNAP recipients to purchase hot foods with their Lone Star Cards at participating retailers within the approved counties through August 14. Hot foods include rotisserie chicken, grocery store deli items, and other food that is hot at the point of sale.

On July 15, Governor Abbott and Chief Kidd toured a Hurricane Beryl resource staging area and thanked responders who worked around the clock to assist fellow Texans.

On July 14, Governor Abbott directed the Texas Division of Emergency Management (TDEM) to request additional counties be added to the federal disaster declaration for FEMA's Individual Assistance programs. The additional counties include Austin, Bowie, Shelby, Trinity, and Waller.

On July 13, Governor Abbott announced that the federal government has updated the Major Disaster Declaration for Hurricane Beryl to include 17 Texas counties now eligible for the FEMA's Individual Assistance program.

On July 12, Acting Governor Patrick announced that, at his request, FEMA has amended the Major Disaster Declaration for Hurricane Beryl to include 15 Texas counties he requested for FEMA's Individual Assistance program.

Additionally, Acting Governor Patrick directed TDEM to request the inclusion of Fort Bend and Nacogdoches counties to FEMA's Individual Assistance programs.

On July 11, Governor Abbott announced that Texas has requested FEMA Individual Assistance program for 15 counties; Brazoria, Chambers, Galveston, Harris, Jackson, Jasper, Jefferson, Liberty, Matagorda, Montgomery, Orange, Polk, San Jacinto, Walker, and Wharton.
