Hazardous Weather

Critical fire weather conditions are forecast across the western Panhandles today. Changes have been made to the previous forecast because lower wind speeds and higher RH values are expected for the eastern Panhandles. Even still, elevated conditions exist in those areas. Take precautions to prevent fire starts throughout the whole area!

A Red Flag Warning is in effect for the western South Plains and far SW TX Panhandle today. WNW sustained winds of 20-30 mph with gusts up to 40 to 45 mph are expected.
