Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Service (AgriLife):

On May 22, the Disaster Assessment and Recovery (DAR) Specialist stationed at the Incident Management Team (IMT) in Amarillo demobilized at the end of shift and traveled back to their home base. Assessment teams with DAR, County Extension Agents (CEA) and Area Chief have demobilized and will continue to monitor recovery needs remotely. The local CEA will monitor ongoing needs and assist with monetary donations through the agricultural program area committee and the Amarillo Foundation.

Preliminary damage assessments from the Hunggate Fire, compiled by the USDA–Farm Services Agency, DAR, and the CEA, indicate significant agricultural losses. Current reports show the loss of 10 heads of cattle, damage or destruction to approximately 154 miles of fencing, and the loss of more than 1,000 bales of hay.

AgriLife Extension and USDA will continue to record damages as landowners report them. For the 26-0001 Incident, iSTAT submissions from May 15 through today include 24 entries in the State of Texas Assessment Tool portal from landowners reporting agricultural damage to fencing, crops, livestock, and equipment. Four of those landowners have requested assistance from the AgriLife Extension Service. County Extension Agents in the affected counties are contacting these landowners and providing relief assistance as the requests are received.
